

FOREIGNERS TRY TO FLEECE DIXON MEN

TRIO FROM CEMENT HOTEL GET TO STERLING WITH OVER FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS

MAKE GETAWAY IN AUTOMOBILE

Attempt to Abscond With Cash of Weigle & Schorr is Discovered—Are Caught in Sterling.

Peter Burz, Minerva Burz, with whom he has been living as man and wife, and Nick Corches were arrested Saturday night at about midnight at Sterling, the arrest being made by the Sterling police on information from the Dixon officials, that the three were wanted here to answer to several very serious charges. The prisoners were brought back to this city at three o'clock Sunday morning and will be arraigned before Magistrate Kent sometime this afternoon or tomorrow, to answer to one or more charges, conviction of any one of which will result in their receiving stiff sentences.

They face charges of obtaining money under false pretenses, larceny, embezzlement, conspiracy to fraud and other minor counts that may be brought against them while Burz and the woman may be charged with a statutory offense, the marriage license found in their possession bears no evidence of the marriage having been performed.

Got Money From Merchants

The three have been conducting the "Cement Hotel" at the works of the Sandusky Portland Cement company, east of the city, for some time and it has been their custom on pay days to borrow several hundred dollars from local merchants with which to cash the checks of the boarders. Heretofore they have always returned the money they secured for this purpose.

Saturday being pay day at the cement works, they came to Dixon and secured $200 from George Schorr and $225 from Al Weigle for the check-cashing purpose. They also tried to secure $200 from Phil Marks, but that merchant refused to let them have it, and their actions at the time aroused his suspicions. He imparted his suspicions to Mr. Weigle and they together, with Magistrate Kent started an investigation, which finally showed that the three intended to make their get-away. In the meantime Mr. Schorr had driven to the hotel and secured his money on demand.

Caught in Sterling.

The investigation which Magistrate Kent instituted showed that after securing all the money they could in Dixon, the three foreigners had engaged an automobile at the Joe Miller garage and had been taken to the hotel, where they had secured all of their belongings, and returning to this city had engaged Mr. Miller to take them to Sterling in an auto. They had left for Sterling before the discoveries were completed and it was necessary to telephone to Sterling and have the officers there make the arrest.

Since Saturday night it has been learned that the three have contracted debts in this city to the amount of nearly $600, all of which they evidently had intended to "jump"; and as they are the sixth gang that has attempted this procedure, the merchants and officers are determined to teach them a lesson, by punishing them to the fullest extent of the law.

CO. G. SHOOTERS ARE IN FINE FORM

CLARENCE REID AND GLENN WICHER, MAKE ESPECIALLY FINE RECORDS ON TARGETS

Several of the members of Company G. rifle team put in Sunday on the Camp Palmer range at Galt, and the boys hit the targets in a manner that indicated that the team that takes the regimental cup away from them in the regimental shoot next month will have to make some record. All of the Dixon men shoot well, while especial mention is made of the work of C. P. Reid and Glenn Wicher. In the rapid fire practice, these two men got a score of 49 out of a possible 50.

Miss Mary Hussey of Franklin Grove was here Saturday visiting local friends.

DIXON MISSED A BAD WIND STORM

TERRIFIC WIND STORM SPLIT WEST OF STERLING AND WENT SOUTH AND NORTH OF US

Dixon and immediate vicinity luckily escaped a serious wind storm Sunday afternoon, due to the storm splitting a few miles west of Sterling, one part of it going north and the other south of this section. Reports from the south indicate that the wind did a great deal of damage. Telephonic messages from the vicinity of Van Patten are to the effect that the wind tore big trees up by the roots, and also levelled the grain flat after which the rain beat it down, totally destroying hundreds of acres of oats and wheat.

BUSTERS LAMBASTED HUBER'S PET CURVES

SHOE MAKERS STOPPED I. N. U. TEAMS CLIMB BY HARD HITTING SUNDAY

FOUR HOME RUNS IN GAME

Harris Poled Two Circuit Smashers With Runners on the Sacks Each Time

The race for honors in the City League was made more interesting by the Saturday and Sunday games; for the Stars and the I. N. U. teams which were assuming a commanding lead, were both defeated. The game Sunday afternoon, between the I. N. U. and Buster Browns was a decided surprise in that Huber, the crack southpaw "got his" with a vengeance in two distinct and separate innings. Carp was hit harder Sunday than he has been for many moons. For proof consult the details:

First Inning
I. N. U.—Buckley hit through the box and went to second on a balk. Mason out, second to first. Schultz fanned. Ruthe hit between short and third, and Huber hit into right scoring Buckley from third and Schultz from second where he had gone on a wild pitch. Florida out to Woodyatt, unassisted.

BUSTERS—Burke walked. Woodyatt singled into right. Bowden hit a hard one to second and was thrown out at first but Burke and Woodyatt advanced. Harris put it over the left field fence for four sacks, scoring two ahead of him. Long singled and went to second on Huber's wild heave to get him at the second sack on Stephanitch's weak effort, both runners safe. Trout singled scoring Long. McCarty walked and Dollmyer singled scoring Stephanitch. An error by Schultz on the throw let in McCarty cross the rubber. Burke out short to first. Woodyatt out second to first.

Second Inning
I. N. U.—Monahan out Burke to Woodyatt. Woody skied out to center and Lightner fanned.

BUSTERS—Bowden out Dollmyer to Woodyatt. Harris walked but was forced to second by Long, Florida to Ruth. Stephanitch singled but died when Trouth fanned.

Third Inning
I. N. U.—Dollmyer hit Buckley. Mason and Schultz followed with singles and Ruth doubled, scoring them both. Huber out to second on a high one. Florida skied out to right and Monahan fanned.

BUSTERS—McCarty out second to first on a pretty pick up by Ruth. Dollmyer out Monahan to Buckley. Burke fanned.

Fourth Inning

I. N. U.—Woody safe on a scratch single on which Harris and Woodyatt got balled up. Buckley hit into left, but Woody was caught at third when he tried to take two bases on the hit. Mason hit into left center and Schultz followed suit, scoring Buckley. Ruthe lifted out to left.

BUSTERS—Woodyatt out short to first. Bowden fanned. Harris skied out to left.

Fifth Inning
I. N. U.—Huber out short to first. Florida skied out to right. Stephanitch made a circus catch of Monahan's hard drive for the third out.

BUSTERS—Long hit back of second. Stephanitch fanned. Trout walked, during which procedure Long went down. McCarty hit one to Huber who threw him out at first. Long taking third from which station he scored a minute later on a wild pitch. Dollmyer out, Monahan to Buckley.

Sixth Inning

I. N. U.—Long missed the third strike on Woody, but the batter kicked the ball and was out. Lightner safe on Bowden's error. Buckley out third to first. Mason lifted out to Harris.

BUSTERS—Burke singled. Woodyatt lifted a high one to short. Bowden singled, and with two on, Harris again put the pill over the left field fence for his second homer. Long singled into left and Huber muffed Stephanitch's roller. Monahan kicked Trouth's grounder. Long scoring. McCarty fanned but Dollmyer hit one to left which Woody booted and Stephanitch scored. ## PROHIBIT PARKING OF AUTOS ON FIRST

BUSY PART OF TOWN SECTION IS BEING CHOKED BY STANDING MACHINES.

PARK THEM IN HAY MARKET

Council Intends to Put In Arc Lights And Furnish Watchman in Square Roast Saloon Screens.

Auto regulation and saloon regulation came in for the greater part of the discussion at the City Council meeting this morning. The auto's got the worst of the argument, but the fate of the saloons still hangs in the balance.

Parking Autos.

Mayor Brinton opened the discussion with a complaint about the autos being allowed to park on First street, between Galena and Peoria, on busy nights, and blocking up the streets. The mayor said that an ordinance ought to be introduced that would put a stop to the practice. Commissioner Gannon reminded the Mayor that he had introduced an ordinance some years ago that covered the point the mayor talked of and that the mayor at that time made fun of the ordinance and through his influence and others, the parking on First street clause was eliminated, together with some other that should have been in it.

The mayor said that Saturday night had converted him and that it was an outrage to allow the machines to stop along the curbs in the busy, narrow street and stay there all evening.

Orders were given to draw up an ordinance prohibiting parking of autos or allowing them to stop longer than to take in or discharge passengers or merchandise, on First street, between Galena and Peoria avenues.

Use Hay Market.

Subsequent discussion determined the commissioners to use the Hay Market square for a parking place for automobiles. They intend to employ a night watchman to guard the machines in the park and to have grounds and believe that this will furnish an ideal solution of the problem.

Turn Corners.

Another clause in Mr. Gannon's former ordinance, which was rejected at the time, but has been resurrected for active use, is the one requiring all automobiles to go to an intersection of streets before they are allowed to turn around. No machine will be allowed to turn around between street intersections. In turning street corners, all machines are required to run past the center of the intersecting street before they commence to turn.

Saloon Screens.

Commissioner Van Bibber interjected a question about the screens in saloon windows, which are supposed to be down. He said that Webster's unabridged dictionary defined the word screen as anything that conceals from view, and the North Dixon commissioner declared that big blazing lights hung in the windows, as well as the flowing palm trees in the windows concealed from view the interesting interior, and he believed it was a violation of the law. No one of the commissioners seemed to be particularly anxious to back up Mr. Van Bibber in pushing the question, so the subject was dropped.

Reports Made.

J. B. Lennon and C. H. Clay, auditors of the yearly reports of the City Clerk and the City Treasurer, reported their findings to the city books which were satisfactory.

The final statement of $13,388 for brick paving on North Galena avenue was approved.

HOME FROM CONVENTION.

R. J. Johnson has returned from St. Louis, where he was a delegate to the National convention of the Court of Honor. Mr. Johnson was much impressed with St. Louis as a city and as a commercial center. There is no evidence of business depression in that locality, he reports and the crop indications are splendid, the general growth of crops being far in advance of this locality. The convention of the Court of Honor will be held in some California city next year.

The Misses Swanson of Rock Falls who have been visiting Miss Lillian Gonneman, have returned to their home.

Laura Jean Libbey's Talks on Heart Topics

[Copyright, 1914, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate]

THE PRICE SHE PAYS.

They say our hands may grasp but joy's destroyed.
Youth has but dreams, and age an aching void.
Whose dead-sea fruit, long, long ago has cloved.
Whose night with wild tempestuous storms is rife
And yet a little hope can brighten life.

Of course, it is the nature of young girls to wish to enjoy life. The girl who works hard all day long seems to be the most eager in her pursuit of pleasure. I was at a ribbon counter in one of the large stores the other day. While waiting for my change I could not help hearing this conversation between two of the pretty salesgirls, and I couldn't help getting wonderfully interested in their girlish pranks and plans.

Said one to the other, "Sadie, are you going out tonight?" The answer came promptly, "You must be crazy to ask such a question as that, Lida. I'd die of loneliness if I had to stay home an evening. I'm going to a dance." "I thought you went to one last night," remarked Lida. "I did, indeed!" returned the other. "As for that matter, I could go to a dance every evening in the week and stay until 3 o'clock in the morning and be here the next day."

"I couldn't do that," declared Lida. "I'd have such a headache I couldn't stand up." "I don't mind telling you I take a glass of wine between the dances if I feel real tired and it's getting awfully late," explained Sadie, lowering her voice to a whisper. "I go with a lively crowd and I can't do different from the others."

I went into the store yesterday. Sadie was not at her post. The girls behind the counter were talking in awed, low tones.

"Didn't you read about Sadie in this morning's paper?" said one to the other, adding excitedly: "It seems, she was found wandering on the street, and, oh! in such a state. They arrested her, and put her in a cell, charged as being a common drunk. Her folks sent her word she must never come there again. The manager sent her notice that she was discharged."

Every girl who reads this should beware of the lure of the dance, the midnight hour and wine. No working girl can afford to make such a demand upon her health and strength and be in a fit position to attend to the duties for which her employer is paying her. The road downhill is steep and slippery as a toboggan slide. The girl who respects herself advances. Every girl can make her own future either bright and prosperous or dark and disgraceful. When pleasure is healthful, it is recreation. Young girls are as weak as rosebuds swinging on a branch. A constant rough wind will shatter them. No girl can burn the candle at both ends and expect to prosper. "All work and no play makes Jill a dull girl." Yet if the girl who must earn her own bread does not look out for her own health and strength the price she pays will be to fall by the wayside.

NO NEED OF A WIFE.

Though cruel brief be Love's bright hour of song,
Yet let him sing his full!
For often hears the echo shall prolong,
When Love's own voice is still.

Whenever you hear a man say he has no need of a wife don't contradict him, but you may think as you please. Because he has a home and a father and mother anxious to gratify his every whim he thinks it will always last. He is popular with the girls. The sweetest, most desirable welcome him warmly when he chooses to call. Bright eyes grow brighter and dimpled cheeks blush rosy at his whispered words. He thinks that's going to last, too. He finds girls soon tire of the fellows whose intentions are only to jolly them.

The man who has gone round quite a bit, always seeking fairer faces and new scenes, loses without realizing his greatest charm—the buoyancy of early manhood, so appealing to young women. He thinks the repartee which was so interesting to the dashing widow should amuse everyone else whom he meets. He dubs the girl stupid if she fails to have the widow's keen perception of the joke. He fairly lives at his club. The society of the half-fellows-well-met will always be a pleasure that he can enjoy.

But, one by one, the happy-go-lucky club fellows drop out. He finds himself the last bachelor there. The men with lovely young daughters and marriageable young sisters have ceased inviting him to their homes for dinner because of his expressed views that he's not in need of a wife. He finds when the old folks leave him and gray hairs commence to thread their way among his dark locks—for old Father Time uses his scythe to some purpose, clipping him bald—and his evil genius, the gout, persists in visiting him twice a year, staying six months each time, rendering him well-near helpless, that there is a certain void in his life, a want up to that time that he never knew existed—the need of a sympathetic companion. He knows at last there is no human being on earth so near and dear as a wife; some one to console him and help him laugh away dull care.

No man grows old so fast as the bachelor, who has frittered away his best years. He sees his comrades of other days with big, strong manly sons and loving daughters, who are frightened to death if father has a pain in his little finger. But the man who has no need of a wife all these years might have such a buzzing pain in his head that he nearly collapsed and there would be no one interested save, perhaps, his nieces, who, instead of asking, "How is poor uncle?" anxiously propound to each other the query, "I wonder how much he has saved?" The man who has all his life declared that he was not in need of a wife at length is obliged to call in a nurse.

It's always the man who thinks he has no need for a wife who has the greatest need at last. If relatives could know of the lonely ending of the young man of the family who was encouraged to believe he was better off without a wife, they would encourage single men who were healthy, strong, capable of taking care of a happy home, to wed young and have a happy home life, such as all men are entitled to enjoy.

TAKING A CHANCE ON HAPPINESS IN WEDLOCK.

Happy, happier far than thou,
With the laurel on thy brow,
She that makes the humblest hearth
Lovely but to one on earth.

There are very few girls who are blessed with a model lover, a man who has no faults. From the time his visits indicate serious intentions, the family of his sweetheart begin to speculate as to what faults he may have. Love is blind, they concede, declaring among themselves that it is wisest and best to point out his shortcomings. Then she will not jump blindly into matrimony.

Her father insinuates that a man's a sponge who comes calling on a girl Sunday afternoons and remains until the dinner bell rings, accepting her invitation to dine. Company dinners are more expensive than the plain, wholesome meals the family sits down to. Mother thinks daughter has made a happy choice of a suitor, insisting that not one young man in a hundred would be so considerate of her daughter as to provide a carriage when he takes her to the theater, even if it's only a few blocks off. And he dresses with such perfect taste, and sends her flowers every evening he does not come.

"That's sheer extravagance!" cuts in Uncle Ned. "It may do for a millionaire not knowing the need of money. It isn't the proper caper for a man who earns thirty per cent. I think more of his counting his pennies if he thinks of marrying."

Aunt Ellen feels he's inclined to flirt. She has seen him walking with young ladies and each one he seemed to pay marked attention to. One or two of the girls she mistrusted to be dreadful coquettes. Her brother was of the opinion that he wasn't a stranger to the wine cup. He had run across him at a bar in a cafe! A chorus of "What took you there?" he silenced by a lame excuse—he stopped to buy a package of cigarettes! The way he looked from one to the other said plainer than words that he hoped the cigarette part would be believed. By the time the family sum up the lover's faults they made it appear that the girl would take a hazardous chance on matrimony if she married him.

There are maidens who accept these insinuations as truths. Other girls demand stronger proofs of the shortcomings of the man in whom they placed faith and love. She valiantly defends the absent one. If he visits her Sunday afternoons she knows he is with no one else. The hours are all too short. Manlike, he does not stop to consider the extra preparations for one more at the table. Didn't he bring a cane for father, a sewing basket for mother, an expensive pipe for Uncle Ned, a book for Aunt Ellen and a charm for brother Tom's watch chain? The cash for these peace offerings would more than set their table for a week.

Can he turn his head the other way, pass by his women friends, if they go in the same direction without a few words of pleasant greeting? I couldn't care for a man who would show discourtesy to my sex. As for extravagance, a lover should be pardoned for indulging the whim of a girl he loves once in a while, even if it is a strain on his pocketbook. Both understand tacitly that it will be trolley cars for them after marriage. Some men have but one fault. If it does not lead to excess it can be broken up, if his love for the girl who condemns it is of sufficient strength. What can be expected from the man who conceals his follies? She can decide if it is safe to take a chance in wedlock with the man who is open and aboveboard in all he says and does.

Few if any men have the wisdom of Solomon. Love is a corrector of follies. The good qualities of a lover should be found out, given credit. If only perfect men went to the altar nearly every girl would live and die a spinster.

ONE KIND OF A BIRTHDAY

Edward Tilden, President of Libby, McNeill and Libby had a birthday Saturday. It was his fifty-eighth. He celebrated it at his country home at Delavan Lake, Wis., and he got more real enjoyment and gave more real enjoyment in connection with his birthday than most men are privileged to do.

Hod did he have all this fun? He invited in the kids of the neighborhood and he took in a lot of territory in mapping out his neighborhood, so that when he got his party all together, counting the parents of the kids and a few friends from Chicago, he found he had between five and six thousand guests, the majority of whom were children.

Everybody had luncheon, and the children were treated first. There were Punch and Judy shows, a dog and pony circus, balloon ascension, moving pictures, pony races and other things calculated to delight the youthful hearts during the afternoon, and the sixteen hundred acre farm was alive with merriment.

The big birthday party at the Tilden place has become an annual event and is looked forward to by all the children of the countryside. Edward Tilden deals out more happiness that way in a day than any other way one could imagine. Few people could afford to do it, but it is refreshing to find a man like that. The commonly drawn picture of the stony hearted, money grabbing populace oppressing capitalist does not fit well with the picture of Edward Tilden feeding ice cream and cake and furnishing circuses to thousands of little kiddies.

HADLEY ON SUCCESS

The notion that only a few can succeed in life, while the many must fail, is as pernicious as it is unfortunately wide spread. President Hadley of Yale, in a fine address to a graduating class, preached a golden gospel on the theme of true success. The thousands of young men and women who are entering professional and business life this year, need such advice of soberness, wisdom and truth.

Honorable ambition is not to be discouraged, but the big prizes are few and far between. If all could be eminent, there would be no such thing as eminence. There is always room at the top, but not all of us can be accommodated there at the same time. Those who do not attain eminence or wealth are not, however, failures. They may be successful in the noblest sense of the term. Happiness, contentment, the joy of accomplishment and usefulness are for all. The greatest blessings of life are, not monopolized by the few. Family affection, friendship, neighborliness, work and rest, leisure, science, art, appreciation of beauty, social service, good citizenship—these human and superior pleasures of life are for all, or for the overwhelming majority at any rate. The mission of civilization is to bring them within the reach of all.

The right idea of success is the best gift of the college, and the student who "commences" with this idea in his mind and heart cannot possibly fail.—Chicago Herald.

CHEAP ADVERTISING.

New York Herald: The enterprising advertiser long since discarded the hand bill as a means of reaching possible customers. He found that these relics of an archaic advertising age were read only to be thrown away, if read at all. So, he views the newspaper that is cheap in price—cheap in everything else. It is the newspaper that is read and read through, the newspaper of the home, that counts from the advertiser's standpoint.

The motorcycle cop may not have made himself very thick with the automobile fraternity in Dixon, but he is doing his duty and is accomplishing what he started out to do. Drivers are using more care and their wounded feelings are scarcely to be worried over if a life or so can be saved.

The weather man seems to be coming to the rescue of the Democrats and the prospects for a bumper crop were never better. Heaven knows the Democrats need help.

The prospects are very excellent for a republican congress in the state house at Washington, after this fall's elections.

Spanish War Soldiers Meet.

East St. Louis, Ill., June 22.—Led by the Forty-second regiment band from Jefferson barracks, Spanish war soldiers of Illinois, in annual encampment here, marched through the downtown streets. Rock Island was selected for the 1915 encampment. The encampment closed with a parade of the Order of the Serpent.

Nominates Rivers McNeill.

Washington, June 22.—President Wilson has sent to the senate the name of Rivers McNeill of Evanston, Ill., for appointment as collector of customs at Chicago. Mr. McNeill was one of the original Wilson men. He will succeed John C. Ames, whose resignation was received in Washington Friday.

DIXONITE SPOILS THE FAKER'S GAME

FARMER FROM THE VICINITY, NAME UNKNOWN, EXPOSES CHICAGO FAKER

The following article appeared in the Chicago Tribune this morning. Who was the "farmer from Dixon?"

A man known only as "John" went into the office of Daniel Connors, an expressman at 211 West Twentieth street, on Saturday to sell him an alleged horse feed. He talked fast and sold $8 worth. The deal was just being closed when a farmer from Dixon, Ill., name unknown—dropped in.

"You're the same guy that bunked some of the fellows down my way," the farmer remarked.

Connors grappled with the feed salesman, showed him into his private office and called the police. Detective Sergeant John Powers answered and was taking the prisoner to the station when he broke away and ran. The detective ran after him and fired several shots. He recaptured him at West Twentieth and Morgan streets.

They proceeded a block farther when the prisoner kicked Powers on the right leg and broke it. Then "John" disappeared.

CHICAGO SEES MEET OF SUNDAY SCHOOLS

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION WILL BRING DELEGATES IN TENS OF THOUSANDS

50,000 MEN IN PARADE

Famous Band of the First Illinois Cavalry, On White Steeds, Will Be in the Parade

Chicago will be the Mecca this week for leaders of our local Sunday schools, who will attend the International Sunday school Convention, witness the great historic pageant, and take part in the monster parade, which will be the most striking and living evidence of the growth of Sunday School work.

It is expected that 50,000 men will be in line in the big parade, which will march up Michigan Avenue next Saturday. Ten thousand from Illinois, outside of Cook County will head the line of march. From the huge reviewing stand in Grant Park, where 10,000 spectators will view the marching hosts Gov. Edward F. Dunne will review them in company with officials of the big convention.

The feature of the parade will be many bands, chief of which will be the famous mounted band of the Illinois First Cavalry Regiment. This wonderful band has 100 members, each of whom rides a white horse. The whole affair will be a wonderful spectacle, in which every state in the Union, every province of Canada, Mexico, Central and South America, and Europe will be represented, and there will be delegates from Australia, Asia and Africa.

Every Sunday School worker everywhere is invited to parade, and take part in a demonstration that will be historic. The parade will move at 2 p. m., and Col. Nathan William McChesney will be Chief Marshal. It will be preceded by automobiles, which will hold 100 street meetings and carry speakers who will address the crowds, which will probably exceed 100,000 people.

Twenty-five thousand dollars have been subscribed to provide the regular convention expenses in Medinah Temple, the biggest convention building in Chicago, where nearly 4,000 can be seated in the audience and 500 on the platform.

Next Sunday thousands of people will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear Richmond Harrison Hooper, the man who performed the daring exploit of sinking the collier Merrimac in the entrance to Santiago harbor; and bottling up Cervera's fleet during the Spanish war. He was captured and immured in the dungeons of the fortress until Admiral Sampson smashed Cervera and the power of Spain. The famous Dr. F. B. Meyer of London, will also deliver an address.

Friday night, June 26th, there will be a great concert in the Auditorium. This will be given by the May Festival Chorus composed of more than 1,000 women. It is under the auspices of the Cook County Sunday School Association. This is the largest ladies chorus in the world, and an enormous audience of musical enthusiasts will doubtless be present.

Saturday night, June 27th, a great historical pageant, illustrating the history of the Sunday School from its earliest days to the present time, will be presented in Medinah Temple.

Miss Anita B. Ferris of New Jersey is in charge of this feature, which is carried out by the Graded Union Sunday School members of Chicago. From the day when Raffles gathered the slum children of an English factory city, and paid them to read and listen to reading of the catechism Sundays to keep them off the streets, it will follow the growth up to the enormous organization which now covers the whole world, and is marching in the fore-front of civilization.

More than 26,000,000 people throughout the world are members of Sunday Schools. They are all represented by delegates at the convention, which is thus the official voice of the largest organized body of human beings in history.

Great Painting Damaged.

The hall in the Rijks museum, in Amsterdam, which contains Rembrandt's "The Night Watch," painted in 1642, was specially built to hold the picture, that the lighting might be as perfect as possible. The picture is always lighted; the hall always dark. Originally the picture was arranged badly as to light and space. When in 1715 it was transferred from the Doeleg to the town hall, it was made to fit into its new position by having strips cut off the canvas on either side and off the top, which destroyed the balance.

Telephones in Constantinople.

Constantinople will shortly be "on the telephone." As the service is in the hands of a private company, and not as here a department of the post-office, we may unreservedly congratulate that ancient city on its new acquisition, remarks the London Globe. It is curious to read that several Turkish girls will be found among the operators. This is a new and highly significant departure, and is said to have the full approval of the government.

Rockford, Ill., June 22.—Daniel R. Schiller, known as "Schiller, the divine healer," was arrested here by federal officers on a charge of using the mails to defraud. He was taken to Freeport to await hearing in the United States District court.

CRIMINAL IS LIKE A JEKYLL-HYDE

Police Investigate Past Record of Grand Rapids Slayer.

WOULD GET IN SOCIAL SWIM

While Attending Dances and Functions, Robinson, Slayer of Policeman, Picked Pockets—Began Career as Hanger-on of Circus—Operating in Many Cities.

Boston, June 22.—A remarkable Jekeyl and Hyde career, involving murders and thievery at one time, and playing the lion as a tango dancer at social gatherings at other times, was uncovered when the police made further investigations of the past of Lawrence, "Chippy" Robinson, who shot and killed Police Inspector Thomas J. Norton here while trying to avoid capture for three murders in the Thompson jewelry store holdup at Grand Rapids, Mich., last September.

He has been living at the Commonwealth hotel for many days under the name of George Spencer. Search of his room showed that he wore the costliest clothing and linen. His wardrobe was faultless, even to his canes. He told friends at the dancing academy of Mrs. Helen Sweney that he intended to spend the summer at the fashionable Mount Kineo house in Maine.

Spencer went to motor runs for a good time. He traveled in automobiles. While attending the dancing academy he met Eva Mundy of Revere. She thought he was a fine young man. He called at her home and during that period E. E. Gray, who lives in the same hotel, lost a watch.

Insists on "Refined" Company. One of Robinson's plans was to get well acquainted with a few people in dance halls and then ply his art as a pickpocket among the dancers.

During his visits to the Sweney dance academy Robinson is said to have sold the proprietor diamonds worth $300 or more. He claimed he was expert in estimating the value of building materials. Another time he claimed he was a proprietor of a western railroad.

The clerk at the Commonwealth hotel said Robinson frequently asked him what places he might go to get in touch with "refined people." He told the clerk something to the effect that he did not wish to associate with "roughnecks."

Born in Washington Court House, O., Robinson has a record in every large city. Besides the daylight robbery in Grand Rapids another at Washington, W. Va., is charged to him. He operates at Saratoga, and frisks the revelers at the New Orleans Mardi Gras. According to a chum of his here with the Barnum & Bailey Circus, "Chippy" started with Buffalo Bill when the picking was good. Later he was a Barker with Forepaugh.

Recently while the Barnum circus was in Philadelphia, the Pinkertons, on his trail for the Grand Rapids murders, came to the circus. Mysteriously tipped, he had just gone, and a circus crony of Robinson's told the detective to beware of him, for he packed a gun and would pull it on sight.

BRANDON THOMAS IS DEAD

Actor and Playwright Succumbs in London, Aged Fifty-Eight.

London, June 20.—Brandon Thomas, actor and playwright, died here, aged fifty-eight. He was best known as the author of "Charley's Aunt," a play which was performed many thousands of times in all parts of the world and in numerous languages.

Mr. Thomas studied civil engineering, but left that profession in 1879 to become an actor and had a successful career on the stage for twenty-eight years. He was also the author of several popular songs.

WIFE SLAYER JAIL SUICIDE

"Willard the Wizard" Leaps to Death in Cincinnati Bastille.

Cincinnati, June 22.—Robert Willard, alias Maloney, known under the name of "Willard the Wizard," at noon committed suicide in the Hamilton county jail by jumping from the top of the fourth tier of cells through the light well to the first floor, a distance of forty feet. His skull was crushed, causing instant death.

Willard shot and killed his twenty-six-year-old wife and little son on Dec. 20 last at a local hotel. After his arrest he shammed insanity. Inquiry developed that he had another wife somewhere in Texas, and after the probate court had pronounced him mentally responsible an indictment of first-degree murder was found against him.

No Freedom for Abe Ruef. San Quentin, Cal., June 22.—The state board of prison directors denied an application for parole made by Abraham Ruef, former political boss of San Francisco, serving a fourteen year sentence for offering a bribe.

SON-IN-LAW OF HOKE SMITH IS ARRESTED

He Is Charged with Operating Auto While Intoxicated.

Annapolis, Md., June 22.—Two prominent young naval officers, Lieutenant Fred H. Poter and Ensign Alston I. Simpson, stationed on the Mayflower, the president's yacht, will answer to the local courts on the charge of reckless driving and operating an automobile while intoxicated. A machine in which they were riding ran into another machine last evening injuring a woman and dashing into a crowd of boys, injuring five. The officers were arrested and had to stay in jail three hours. After midnight they were taken before a justice of the peace and bail was given for them.

Ensign Simpson is the son-in-law of United States Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia.

PRESERVE HOME OF WRITER

Thomas Carlyle's Birthplace Has Been Made Secure From Any Further Molestation.

Henceforth the birthplace of Thomas Carlyle will be secure from molestation. Every visitor to the little Dumfriesshire village of Ecclefechan knows "the Arched House," as it is called; indeed this humble building is the only reason that can draw the visitor to a border hamlet which has few attractions. Carlyle himself says harsh things concerning it in letters to his brother John and was probably writing more under the influence of the subjective impressions and memories of his struggling boyhood than from any real contempt for the place itself. There is extant a photograph of the house which Thomas Carlyle has marked with a star to denote the chamber where he came to light, and he adds: "Room where I was born; to the middle of that arch was my father's house, village of Ecclefechan, 4 Dec., 1794.—T. Carlyle (Chelsea, 5 July, 1871)." The house or pair of houses thus joined by an arch big enough to drive a wagon through, is just a two-story structure of lowland freestone, covered with lime wash; squared as to the windows and doors and firmly slated as to the roof. It stands on the west side of the broad village street not far from the trickle—half stream, half ditch—that distinguishes Ecclefechan from its rivals, and not far from the smart church (United Presbyterian) which guards the little yard where Carlyle lies among his kindred. His wife lies at Haddington.

New Danger. A Cornell man has injected serum into a goat and made the said goat yield twice her usual output of milk, with a cream that was five times richer than before the treatment.

While thoroughly appreciating the importance of this discovery, and while hesitating in even the slightest way to diminish the glory to its inventor, we deem it our duty to point out its dangers.

If we are going to have our productivity increased by an appropriate serum, where is this thing going to stop?

Under the new regime, every author will be able to write twice as many books as before, every orator speak twice as long and every doctor invent twice as many new diseases. Heaven preserve us!—Life.

REBELS TO TAKE PART, RUMOR

No Official Statement Forthcoming Regarding What is Going on Behind Doors of Mediation Meeting—Many Believe Way Out of Carranza Complication Can Be Found.

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 22.—The first full conference held by the Mexican and American delegates and the three South American mediators in more than a week took place today. At this conference Dr. Naon, the Argentine minister, explained to the delegates the new suggestion which in his mind would justify them in continuing their negotiations. No further official statements will be forthcoming from either side until some tangible step has been taken or some decisive agreement arrived at.

Would Admit Rebels. The report that Dr. Naon's plan is to permit the constitutionalists to come to the mediation conference and discuss the international phases of the Mexican problem aroused much interest on all sides here. Although there still are many here who believe that the mediators are as determined as ever to make the participation of Carranza conditional upon the declaration of armistice, there are others in the immediate entourage of the three South American diplomats who believe that a way out of this difficulty can easily be found.

Whatever else may be embodied in Dr. Naon's plan is known to no one here except the Argentine minister himself and his two colleagues. One thing is certain, and that is that the conference practically started all over again this morning.

Villa Marching to Zacatecas.

Washington, June 22.—Word has been received here that General Villa at the head of the army of the north, co-operating with General Natera, had begun the second attack on Zacatecas. The receipt of this message greatly relieved the gloom which has for the past few days permeated the ranks of the representatives of Carranza here. It is regarded as absolute proof of the healing of the breach between Villa and the first chief.

While Zacatecas is not in any sense a strong strategic point for either army to hold, Villa has already announced his intention to sweep the north and central portions of Mexico free of federalists in his march on the capital.

It is understood that Huerta plans to make his most desperate resistance to Villa's march toward Mexico City at this point. Encouraged by the first successful defense of the city, Huerta had added to his military force there and according to unofficial advice, received here, is confident of checking the successful march of the rebels toward Mexico City and prolonging his tenure. Reinforcements are being held in readiness at Mexico City to rush to the aid of the federal forces there in case of necessity.

Harvest Hand Killed, Another Stricken and Rest Flee Kansas.

Kansas City, Mo., June 22.—At Salina, Kas., today George E. Mulvane, a tailor of Detroit, Mich., collapsed in a wheat field while working as a harvest hand and died from heat prostration. Warren Sheldon of Flora, Ill., who was working near Pawnee Rock, Kas., succumbed, suffering violent convulsions, and was taken to a hospital.

Immediately twenty-five men working in the vicinity quit their jobs and left the state on the first train. Offers of more wages failed to tempt them to stay.

Sues Son of General Grant.

New York, June 22.—Jesse Root Grant, son of the late General Ulysses S. Grant, was made defendant in a suit brought in the supreme court by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Chapman Grant, who alleges that her husband virtually deserted her in 1902 and has refused to contribute to her support most of the time since.

M. W. A. Adopt Indianapolis Rate.

Toledo, O., June 22.—The Indianapolis insurance rate was substituted for the Chicago rate in the by-laws of the Modern Woodmen of America by the triennial convention of the order in session here. The Chicago rate, which is higher than the Indianapolis, was the cause of much insurgency.

Y.M.C.A. BOYS HAVE BROKEN THEIR CAMP

CAMP HOPELESS IS NO MORE AND BOYS ARE BROUGHT HOME THIS AFTERNOON.

The Y. M. C. A. boys, who for the past week have been in camp at Green Rock, broke camp today and returned to this city.

It was with considerable regret that the boys left the camp that has housed them for the past ten days for the little community in the woods has been the scene of many splendid good times. There they have learned never to be forgotten lessons in discipline and good sportsmanship and have had the wildest of frolics. So, now, Camp Hopeless, as the boys dubbed it, is no more and they have returned to their homes once more, tanned and toughened, by the week of exposure, with an added appreciation of mother's cooking.

FORMER DIXONITE HAS PASSED AWAY

MRS. BAIN, FORMERLY MRS. CHARLES EBERT, OF DIXON, DIED SUNDAY.

Dixon friends will be shocked to learn of the death of Mrs. Addie Morrison Bain, wife of Doctor R. C. Bain, of Chicago, at her home at 4622 Lake Park avenue, that city, on Sunday.

Mrs. Bain was formerly a resident of this city and at that time her name was Mrs. Charles Ebert. Her husband, Mr. Ebert, was engaged in the ice harvesting business in Dixon for several years, and they resided at the corner of Galeana avenue and Third street. Her mother, Mrs. Julia Morrison, and sister, Mrs. Ralph J. Wood (nee Lillie Morrison) were also residents of Dixon. The funeral will be held at the home of Mrs. Wood, 4646 Woodlawn, avenue, Chicago, on Tuesday at 3 p. m. Burial will be made in Chicago.

Mrs. Bain, better known to Dixon people, as Mrs. Ebert, was greatly beloved by her many friends. During her life in Dixon she became greatly endeared to her friends here, to whom the news of her death is a severe blow.

Rev. H. M. Rogers of Sterling was a visitor in Dixon today.

BACKACHE IS A WARNING

Dixon People Should Not Neglect Their Kidneys.

Backache is often nature's most frequent signal of weakened kidneys. To relieve the pains and aches, to remove the lameness when it arises from weakened kidneys, you must reach the cause—the kidneys. If you have pain through the small of your back, urinary disorders, headaches, dizzy spells, or are nervous and depressed, start treating the kidneys with a tested kidney remedy.

Doan's Kidney Pills have been proved good and are especially weak kidneys. Doan's have been used in kidney trouble for over 50 years. Here is convincing proof of merit. It comes from this locality:

Mrs. J. H. Boehn, 906 Fourth Ave., Sterling, Ill.; says: "We have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for years, and think they are the best kidney remedy to be had. Although I never had occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills myself, I can confirm the public statement I gave some years ago, in their favor. One of the family had trouble from his back and kidneys. The kidney action was irregular and his back hurt him. Finally, he used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Perry's Drug Store, and they gave him relief."

The above is an isolated case. Mrs. Boehn is only one of many in this vicinity who have gratefully endorsed Doan's. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Boehn recommends. 50c all stores, Foster. ## SALEM WITCHES NOT BURNED

Popular Delusion Is Frequently Referred to by Writers Who Should Know Better.

Prof. George L. Burr has written a book on witchcraft in which he reminds people—and most of them need the reminder—that Massachusetts was not the only American colony that had witchcraft persecutions in the seventeenth century.

In New York there is an account of the trial as a witch of a woman from Setauket, L. I.: In New Hampshire there was a case tried at Great Island; in Pennsylvania one important case tried in Philadelphia, and there were also some cases in Virginia.

It is a curious thing people in general can never get over the delusion that people were burned for witchcraft at Salem. Every little while we see some newspaper or literary reference to the "burning of witches at Salem." Witches were hanged at Salem, but none was ever burned.

By the way, a distinguished legal authority has examined the evidence used in the witchcraft cases at Salem, and declares that it was irrefutable—all of the ironical and most conclusive sort. No jury would fail to convict today on such evidence as was adduced in these cases. Just the same, witchcraft was a horrible delusion.

PLEASED HIS ENGLISH HOSTS

Well-Known French Writer Made Distinct Hit at Dinner Given in His Honor at London.

M. Anatole France was recently entertained at a dinner in London given by a member of distinguished English writers, with Lord Redesdale in the chair.

Nor were ladies absent, for among the company were Mme. Sarah Grand, Mrs. Humphry Ward, Countess Arncliffe, Miss Marie Corelli, and the Rancee of Sarawak. Lord Redesdale defined the novel as the champagne of prose literature, and M. Anatole France, with the keen perception of the Parisian, explained in a phrase the spirit of the novel and the secret of its popularity: "The novel is in its nature intimate, cordial and homely, and the English mind is homely, intimate and cordial."

Another happy and witty touch was his reference to himself as a Frenchman "weak enough to write," a philosopher and poet having declared that "silence alone is great." With courtly compliments to "English genius," the guest of the evening charmed all his hearers and concluded his speech with the fine aspiration: "Our task is no longer to conquer the world, but to pacify it. Let us labor together for the peace of the world."

The Luxury of Sugar.

Sugar was considered an article of luxury in Europe until tea and coffee became usual articles of diet. Sugar was then used to sweeten these beverages, and so gradually came to have a prominent part in the daily diet. Before the days of sugar, much more meat was eaten and the drinking of alcoholic beverages was much more common. The fair maiden who could not, with impunity, drink a pint of ale for breakfast, was unusual. Perhaps, in spite of the fact that most of us eat too much of it, sugar is a blessing. Even over-sweetened coffee and cereal covered with sugar sound more beneficial than a pint of ale and half a pound of beef for breakfast.

THE DIXON ROTARY LAWN MOWER

"DIXON"

THE LIGHT RUNNING, HEAVY DUTY LAWN MOWER.

Guaranteed Equal to the Best Made.

Made in Dixon. Boost! It is Dixon. Every lawn in Dixon should have a mower on it. Your dealer should have them. If he has not got them call us and we will supply you.

We wish to draw your attention to a few of the improvements in the Dixon Lawn Mower over all other makes.

First, to the floating bed knife bar which is swiveled on the rod that ties the back end of the mower securely together, and, with the other tie rod at the front makes the most rigid frame to be found in lawn mowers.

You will notice at each back corner of the bed knife a compression spring. These press the cutting edge of the bed knife up against the reel, or revolving knife, always adjusting itself.

We make the Dixon with a thrust ball bearing which is the same as is used in automobiles, making it the best.

The knives throughout are crucible steel. The lower bed knife is crucible lip steel.

The Dixon Mower will cut heavy grass without raising the handle and without lifting up behind and choking.

HAL CHASE JUMPS TO BUFFALO FEDS

Premier First Sacker Puts up Stellar Game in First Try.

Chicago, June 22.—Hal Chase, probably the best known first baseman in the American league, jumped from the Chicago White Sox to the Buffalo Federal league team and covered first base for the Buffalos in the game against the Chicago Federal league team here.

It is reported here that Chase will endeavor to elude process servers Monday and probably will not again be seen in Buffalo uniform here during the present series.

Chase covered himself with glory in his first appearance in a Buffalo uniform today by getting two of the five hits registered against the pitching of Lange by his new team mates.

The former manager of the New York Americans also had seven put-outs and no errors. It was his double in the ninth inning that saved Buffalo from a shut-out, for it scored Booe, who had previously singled.
